Enrollment

THIS PAGE INCLUDES:

>> Enrollment

On this page, enter the number of candidates for an initial teaching credential who are enrolled in the initial teacher preparation programs within your institution of higher education (IHE) or organization. Do not report on the total number of students enrolled in the entire IHE. Do not include individuals who currently hold a teaching credential and are seeking additional licenses or endorsements, or individuals preparing for school-based careers other than classroom teachers (e.g., administrators, guidance counselors).

The Department recognizes that in many cases, candidates voluntarily report their race/ethnicity and gender data, and that in some cases, candidates may choose not to report this information. Please report on the race/ethnicity data you have available, though the data may not be complete. It is not expected that the sum of the enrolled students reported by race/ethnicity or by gender will necessarily equal the total number of students enrolled.

If your IHE offers both traditional and alternative programs, be sure to enter the candidates enrolled in the appropriate reports. For the traditional report, provide only the candidates enrolled in traditional programs within the IHE. For the alternative report, provide only the candidates enrolled in the alternative programs within the IHE.

After entering the enrollment data, save the page using the floating save box at the bottom of the page.

Enrollment

For the purpose of Title II reporting, an enrolled student is defined as a student who has been admitted to a teacher preparation program, but who has not completed the program during the academic year being reported. An individual who completed the program during the academic year being reported is counted as a program completer and not an enrolled student.

Unduplicated number of males enrolled in 2016-17	137

Provide the number of students in the teacher preparation program in the following categories. Note that you must report on the number of students by ethnicity and race separately. Individuals who are non-Hispanic/Latino will be reported in one of the race categories. Also note that individuals can belong to one or more racial groups, so the sum of the members of each racial category may not necessarily add up to the total number of students enrolled. ## Teachers Prepared

On this page, enter the number of program completers by the subject area in which they were prepared to teach, and by their academic majors. Note that an individual can be counted in more than one academic major and subject area. For example, if an individual is prepared to teach Elementary Education and Mathematics, that individual should be counted in both subject areas. If no individuals were prepared in a particular academic major or subject area, you may leave the cell blank. Please use the "Other" category sparingly, if there is no similar subject area or academic major listed. In these cases, you should use the text box to describe the subject area(s) and/or the academic major(s) counted in the "Other" category.

If your IHE offers both traditional and alternative programs, be sure to enter the program completers in the appropriate reports. For the traditional report, provide only the program completers in traditional programs within the IHE. For the alternative report, provide only the program completers for the alternative programs within the IHE.

After entering the teachers prepared data, save the page using the floating save box at the bottom of the page.

Teachers Prepared by Academic Major

Please provide the number of teachers prepared by academic major for academic year 2016-17. For the purposes of this section, number prepared means the number of program completers. "Academic major" refers to the actual major(s) declared by the program completer. An individual can be counted in more than one academic major. If no individuals were prepared in a particular academic major, please leave that cell blank. (§205\(b\)\(1\)\(H\))

Please note that the list of majors includes several "Teacher Education" majors, as well as several noneducation majors. Please use care in entering your majors to ensure education-specific majors and non-education majors are counted correctly. For example, if an individual majored in Chemistry, that individual should be counted in the "Chemistry" academic major category rather than the "Teacher Education–Chemistry" category.

Program Completers

On this page, enter the total number of individuals who completed the program in AY 2016-17 and the two prior academic years. If you submitted an IPRC last year, the number of program completers for the two prior academic years are pre-loaded from your prior year's report.

A program completer is a person who has met all the requirements of a state-approved teacher preparation program. Program completers include all those who are documented as having met such requirements. Documentation may take the form of a degree, institutional certificate, program credential, transcript or other written proof of having met the program's requirements. In applying this definition, the fact that an individual has or has not been recommended to the state for initial certification or licensure may not be used as a criterion for determining who is a program completer.

An individual cannot be classified as both enrolled and as a program completer at the same time. An enrolled individual is not a program completer. Once an individual has met all the requirements of a state-approved teacher preparation program and becomes a program completer, the individual is no longer classified as enrolled.

After entering the program completers, save the page using the floating save box at the bottom of the page.

Annual Goals - Mathematics

Each institution of higher education (IHE) that conducts a traditional teacher preparation program (including programs that offer any ongoing professional development programs) or alternative route to state credential program, and that enrolls students receiving Federal assistance under this Act, shall set annual quantifiable goals for increasing the number of prospective teachers trained in teacher shortage areas designated by the Secretary or by the state educational agency, including mathematics, science, special education, and instruction of limited English proficient students. (§205\(a\)\(1\)\(A\)\(ii\), §206\(a\))

Information about teacher shortage areas can be found at <https://www2.ed.gov/about/offices/list/ope/pol/tsa.html>.

Please provide the information below about your program's goals to increase the number of prospective teachers in mathematics in each of three academic years.

Academic year 2016-17

Assurances

Please certify that your institution is in compliance with the following assurances. (§205\(a\)\(1\)\(A\)\(iii\), §206\(b\)) Note: Be prepared to provide documentation and evidence for your responses, when requested, to support the following assurances.

1. Preparation responds to the identified needs of the local educational agencies or States where the program completers are likely to teach, based on past hiring and recruitment trends.

- Yes
 No

2. Preparation is closely linked with the needs of schools and the instructional decisions new teachers face in the classroom.

- Yes
 No

3. Prospective special education teachers are prepared in core academic subjects and to instruct in core academic subjects.

- Yes
 No
 Program does not prepare special education teachers

4. Prospective general education teachers are prepared to provide instruction to students with disabilities.

- Yes
 No

5. Prospective general education teachers are prepared to provide instruction to limited English proficient students.

- Yes
 No

6. Prospective general education teachers are prepared to provide instruction to students from low-income families.

- Yes
 No

7. Prospective teachers are prepared to effectively teach in urban and rural schools, as applicable.

- Yes
 No

8. Describe your institution's most successful strategies in meeting the assurances listed above:

Regular meetings with local education agencies and professional educators are conducted to review current needs and share program responses. Our involvement in actively supervising student teachers assists in gaining knowledge from the observations and discussions with cooperating teachers as to the needs of the schools and students. Annual employer and alumni surveys are disseminated and reviewed to identify needs of schools and issues/instructional decisions facing new teachers. The vast majority of special education teacher candidates major in Interdisciplinary Liberal Studies, providing them with underlying content knowledge needed for core academic content knowledge. There is a program requirement that all special education teacher candidates must take and pass the Elementary Education Praxis Subject Assessment test as a program requirement. General education teacher candidates receive instruction in teaching diverse students through coursework and field experiences. Field experiences are reviewed to ensure that candidates have experiences in diverse settings; however due to the nature of our region our candidates have limited access to urban settings, whereas they have extensive access to rural settings. Collaborations between our programs and urban schools continue to evolve and will continue to strengthen our responsiveness to this area of need in the next few years. Although our local schools may not be considered "urban" they do provide multicultural experiences of ethnic diversity, language diversity and socioeconomic diversity, and thus reflect principal characteristics of urban school settings. Our program completers are successful in securing employment in school divisions. Reports from hiring principals suggest that completers are performing well in the schools in which they work, often assuming leadership positions in their early years of employment. Field experiences prior to student teaching and during student teaching occur in a variety of settings that are both rural and urban and reflect the range of SES from low to high. However, in examining our program, we occasionally do not provide adequate, systematic and intentional instruction that prepares our students to work in high-poverty schools located in urban or rural areas; to provide instruction to limited English proficient students and students from low-income families. These limitations in our programs are currently being addressed through program and course revisions that are underway. As an example, during the 17-18 academic year the secondary education program will be completing a review and developing proposed revisions of course content in providing instruction to students with disabilities and limited English proficiency.

- Yes
 No

If yes, please specify the organization(s) that approved or accredited your program:

- State
 NCATE
 TEAC
 CAEP
 Other specify:

SACS; undergoing CAEP accreditation (self study submitted 3/18; site visit to occur 11/18)

Use of Technology

1. Provide the following information about the use of technology in your teacher preparation program. Please note that choosing 'yes' indicates that your teacher preparation program would be able to provide evidence upon request. (§205\(a\)\(1\)\(F\))

Does your program prepare teachers to:

- a. integrate technology effectively into curricula and instruction

Yes
 No

- b. use technology effectively to collect data to improve teaching and learning

Yes
 No

- c. use technology effectively to manage data to improve teaching and learning

Yes
 No

- d. use technology effectively to analyze data to improve teaching and learning

Yes
 No

2. Provide a description of the evidence that your program uses to show that it prepares teachers to integrate technology effectively into curricula and instruction, and to use technology effectively to collect, manage, and analyze data in order to improve teaching and learning for the purpose of increasing student academic achievement. Include a description of the evidence your program uses to show that it prepares teachers to use the principles of universal design for learning, as applicable. Include planning activities and a timeline if any of the four elements listed above are not currently in place.

The programs consistently integrate the use of technology throughout the teacher candidates' experiences. Multiple courses require teacher candidates to utilize technology while demonstrating their knowledge and understanding of the course material. Coursework is designed to have teacher candidates use technology to create and present lessons in multiple courses and practica. Candidates collect, manage and analyze data for lessons and units within their specialized licensure areas. Some programs have students also create e-professional portfolios to document student learning, highlight effective teaching practices, address state teacher evaluations and to improve teaching. They are prepared to use technology in their teaching, including: productivity software, digital image and video design and creation, interactive whiteboards, mobile devices, information literacy skills, online instructional tools and resources, etc. Candidates in all initial programs take EDUC 300 Foundations of American Education. One unit of the course is "What should teachers know about technology and its impact on schools?" Several programs have specific technology courses designed to help their candidates meet the TSIP standards that include: * EDUC 540 Educational Technology * KIN 511 Technology in Health and Physical Education * MUS 150 Technological Applications in Music Clinical experience assessments provide evidence that our candidates can purposefully use and develop formative and summative assessments to guide instructional decision making, modify instruction, differentiate instruction, and can use technology to enhance learning and track student progress and growth. Technology skill and use (CAEP 1.5) is captured in the Student Teaching Assessment in 2 items: --C4. Integrates instructional technology in planning. --E4. Engages learners in a range of learning experiences using technology. --F3. Seeks and uses information technology from professional sources (e.g., cooperating teacher, colleagues, and/or research) to improve instruction. In reviewing disaggregated, student-identifiable data for these 2 assessment items, the majority of candidates scored at Meets or Exceeds expectations. Those rated as Developing earned that score in the first of their placements and showed improvement on those items as indicated by a Meets Expectations or Exceeds Expectations score on those items by their final assessment in their second placement. Completer surveys indicate the degree to which alumni feel prepared to integrate technology effectively into curriculum and instruction, and to collect, manage, and analyze data to improve teaching and learning. Over 90% of survey respondents [Survey of Completers 2014-2015] indicate they sometimes or often use technology effectively. Alumni from initial licensure programs gave feedback to suggest if their school division had the appropriate technology, they felt prepared to effectively utilize it. As programs conduct curriculum review and revisions, evidence of candidate competencies is examined. The Elementary Education and Early Childhood MAT programs have reviewed evidence of candidates' use of technology to effectively to collect, manage and analyze data and have planned program and course revisions which will be finalized during the 2017-18 academic year.

On this page, review the questions about how your program trains general education teachers and special education teachers. For the purposes of these questions, general education teachers means those who are not specifically prepared as special education teachers. ## Teacher Training

Provide the following information about your teacher preparation program. Please note that choosing 'yes' indicates that your teacher preparation program would be able to provide evidence upon request.  \(§205\(a\)\(1\)\(G\)\)

1. Does your program prepare general education teachers to:

a. teach students with disabilities effectively

- Yes
 No

b. participate as a member of individualized education program teams

- Yes
 No

c. teach students who are limited English proficient effectively

- Yes
 No

2. Provide a description of the evidence your program uses to show that it prepares general education teachers to teach students with disabilities effectively, including training related to participation as a member of individualized education program teams, as defined in section 614(d)(1)(B) of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, and to effectively teach students who are limited English proficient. Include planning activities and a timeline if any of the three elements listed above are not currently in place.

General education teachers' preparation to teach students with disabilities effectively and to teach students who are limited English proficient is provided through coursework and experiences designed by each licensure program. Some programs share a common course which addresses this preparation. Other licensure programs offer coursework and practicum experiences specific to their specialized area. All programs integrate information and strategies related to teaching students with disabilities and students who are English Language Learners in coursework, including field experiences. Although not all candidates are able to experience participation on an IEP team during their student teaching, this information is integrated into their coursework. Introductory course work related to students with disabilities and appropriate strategies for differentiating instruction are provided in our programs. However, intentional preparation related to these three areas is limited in some programs. These limitations in our program are currently being addressed through program and course revisions that are underway.

3. Does your program prepare special education teachers to:

a. teach students with disabilities effectively

- Yes
 No

Program does not prepare special education teachers

b. participate as a member of individualized education program teams

Yes

No

Program does not prepare special education teachers

c. teach students who are limited English proficient effectively

Yes

No

Program does not prepare special education teachers

4. Provide a description of the evidence your program uses to show that it prepares special education teachers to teach students with disabilities effectively, including training related to participation as a member of individualized education program teams, as defined in section 614(d)(1)(B) of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, and to effectively teach students who are limited English proficient. Include planning activities and a timeline if any of the three elements listed above are not currently in place.

Multiple courses and numerous supervised clinical experiences address these objectives. Special education teacher candidates are provided opportunities to analyze the impact of targeted instruction on student learning, and the use of specific strategies for learners with disabilities. They are well prepared to be members of IEP teams both through their coursework, use of case studies, simulations, and actual experiences in their field placements. As an NCATE accredited program (soon to be reviewed by CAEP), we collect performance data on all candidates and will not allow those who fall below the predetermined proficiency level to progress in the program.

Contextual Information

Please use this space to provide any additional information that describes your teacher preparation program(s). You may also attach information to this report card (see below). The U.S. Department of Education is especially interested in any evaluation plans or interim or final reports that may be available.

Further evidence that our programs are in compliance with assurances related to technology and teacher training is available through review of national, state and institutional accreditation reports. Our professional education unit successfully achieved re-accreditation through NCATE (now CAEP). All of our programs have met the standards put forth by the Virginia Department of Education. Our university recognizes our programs as compliant with institutional standards of curriculum design and review. As a measure of program quality, NCTQ ranks our graduate secondary education program 15th nationally, and tied for 3rd place in the Southern region (for the 2014 rankings; see <http://www.nctq.org/teacherPrep/review2014/findings/regionalFindings.jsp>). Four of our programs received national recognition as of February 1, 2016, through their Specialty Professional Organizations: Middle Education (AMLE), Social Studies Education (NCSS), English Education (NCTE), and School Psychology (NASP). Program renewal efforts, particularly those corresponding to the upcoming (Fall 2018) CAEP review are challenging because of the Commonwealth of Virginia not providing follow-up data on completers working in state K-12 public school settings. CAEP Standard 4 requires the provider "demonstrates the impact of its completers on P-12 student learning and development, classroom instruction, and schools, and the satisfaction of its completers with the relevance and effectiveness of their preparation."
